

Cote d'Azur, Corsica, Sardinia and the Italian Riviera

7 days / 6 nights

From Nice, an exclusive and fantastic trip accross Corsica, Sardinia and the Italian riviera. A guided trip like no others! Accommodation in 3-star hotels ideally located with a swimming-pool when the sea is too far. Motorbike rental available with 2014 models if you want to avoid the journey to Nice. Luggage transportation is provided in the assisting vehicle.

YOUR PROGRAM

Day 1 - Arrival in Corsica

Meeting at 12:00am at the ferry port. We will board the ferry to Corsica for an afternoon cruise where hopefully we might spot a few dolphins or enjoy the ferry swimming-pool. Arrival in Corsica and transfer to our 3-star hotel for the first night on Corsica.

Day 2 - From Cape Corsica to the Gulf of Porto, through Calvi.

This stage will lead you to discover St Florent and its white sandy beaches while travelling around the Col San Stefano. You will go through the Désert des Agriates, one of Corsica's magnificent protected nature reserve. On the way there, you will get to see stunning landscapes and ride on many fantastic winding roads to the Balagne area. A small artisan road welcomes you overlooking the beautiful coast and its blue sea. A stop in Calvi is necessary to get a feel for this famous sea resort and its citadel before taking a route known as one of the most scenic in Europe. You will finally reach the Gulf of Porto for one night by the sea.

Distance: approximately 191km.

Night in a 3-star hotel with a swimming-pool.

Day 3 - Crossing of the island, from West to East.

This beautiful day ride starts with a detour to cross the UNESCO Calanches de Piana. Then, the roads carries on high into the lands through the fantastic Spelunca Gorge, the Aitone forest and the Scala Santa Regina. After a short stop in Corte, ancient capital of Corsica, you will take the road that follows the centre of the island, in its length towards Porto-Vecchio. You will stay overnight in a charming corsican village above the East coast. Wild boar is a must have in the local restaurant tonight!

Extra ride possible to the fantastic Bavella spines.

Distance: approximately 210km.

Night in a 3-star hotel with a swimming-pool.

Day 4 - From Corsica to Sardinia

Through sceneries that will remind some of you of Canada, you will soon reach the amazing town of Bonifacio, perched on its white cliffs above the Med. You will board on a ferry to Sardinia and less than an hour later, you will be riding on the West coast of Sardinia towards the fortified city of Alghero. It is time for a first italian ice cream!

Distance: approximately 200km.

Night in a 3-star hotel facing the sea.

Day 5 - Crossing Sardinia from West to East

You will today discover mountain villages. One of them, Orgosozo, is famous for its wall paintings representing all the subjects you can think about. A walk in those tiny streets will be followed by a scenic ride on a beautiful road going down to the sea. You will reach your stay for the night in a lively local sea resort.

Distance: approximately 196km.

Night in a 3-star hotel next to the harbour.

Day 6 - From Sardinia to Liguria

You will start the day taking a beautiful side road avoiding the highway and winding in the heart of a cork tree forest. Once in Olbia, night ferry crossing to the very active city of Genova. It is time for a last Ichnusa, the local sardinian beer.

Distance: approximately 146km.

Night in cabins on the ferry.

Day 7 - From Genova to Nice

Once on the Italian mainland, you will follow the road along the famous Italian Riviera. A few stops along the way will show you the beauty of the area or the excess of some very wealthy persons. After crossing the border, you will go through Monaco before reaching your last stop of the trip: Nice. End of trip at the ferry port.

Distance: approximately 200km.
