

Sardinia by motorbike (from Toulon) – 9 day version with ferry crossing included

9 days / 8 nights

Sardinia: a large Mediterranean island bordered by large bays, lofty coasts, crescent-shaped beaches and turquoise-and-emerald waters...

Be enchanted by the island's exquisite cultural and culinary delights, its shimmering coastline, kaleidoscopic murales and the locals' quasi-professed belief in magic.

YOUR PROGRAM

Day 1 - Departure from Toulon

Ferry crossing in the evening. Night in a private cabin.

Day 2 - Arriving in Sardinia

The boat will land at around midday in the north of the island. You will then ride to the heart of the island your first accommodation on the Oristano area.

Night in a 3 star hotel.

Day 3 - Western beaches and the mines of the South

During today's journey, you will ride along beach roads to reach the south of Sardinia, a stunningly wild and lesser-known part of the island. You will discover abandoned villages where Sardinian miners used to live. Admire the beaches and sand dunes of the Costa Verde. In the evening, you will stop in a little town, rich in charm and history.

Night in a 3 star hotel with swimming pool.

Day 4 - The Great South

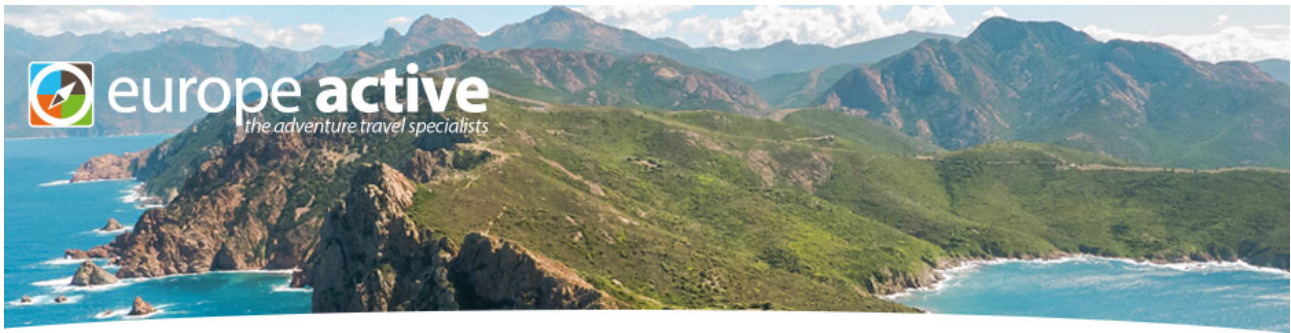

After breakfast, you will get to explore the southern tip of Sardinia. Once there, you will discover a natural park which is a home for many different bird species. You will also have the opportunity to visit a mine, an underground cave or to stroll down the white sandy beaches of the island.
